LEADERSHIP ON DISPLAY AT SUMMER SEMINAR

ICMA President Pat Martel provided an ICMA update to the NCCCMA membership during the recent NCCCMA Summer Seminar in Asheville. Martel is the city manager of Daly City, California.

NCCCMA OFFERS ICMA CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIP

The North Carolina City and County Management Association (NCCCMA) is proud to announce the inaugural ICMA Annual Conference Scholarship Opportunity. The NCCCMA Executive Committee voted unanimously at the Summer Manager's Conference to approve this new scholarship opportunity. NCCCMA Professional Development Committee Member Patrick Niland spearheaded the project and was able to partner with ICMA to waive the conference registration fee.

The scholarship from NCCCMA will be in the amount $1,3000 which will be used for transportation, hotel, and food costs. The scholarship will be awarded to one (1)

CATAWBA COUNTY'S HARRIS NAMED ASSISTANT MANAGER OF THE YEAR

Dewey Harris, the assistant county manager in Catawba County, was recognized as the Assistant Manager of the Year during the NCCMA Summer Seminar in Asheville. Harris has also worked in roles in Wilmington; Pacific, Wash.; and Olympia, Wash., among others.

In the nomination form, Harris was noted for being "extremely gifted in the area of developing interpersonal relationships, always being available to talk to employees, citizens or an elected official who needs his time." He was also noted for being instrumental in the development of Catawba County's new Leadership Academy.

Among other things, Harris was instrumental in creating the Catawba County Employee Diversity Committee, which has brought awareness and training programs to the workforce.

NEW PROCESS FOR COMMITTEE VOLUNTEERING

The N.C. City & County Management Association (NCCCMA) has launched a new online Committee Volunteer process. This new process automates the volunteer interest the appointment and notification process.

Information about how to apply will be going out to the membership in the next week. The new online process will be launched the first week of August, and the window for application will be open through August. Then President Craig Honeycutt will make appointments in early September.

Members will be able to indicate their interest for the various committees as well as indicating interest to serve a chair or vice chair of the committees.

To access the process, go to the association's website at www.ncmanagers.org and click on "Committee Volunteer Form." There you can register for an account and learn more about the committee volunteer opportunities.

For a list of all the NCCCMA committees, go to the NCCCMA website and look under the "About/History" tab.
